GRADE-POINT

AVERAGE

- Sports played: Field hockey (four years); lacrosse (four).

- Academic highlights: National Merit Commended

Scholar; Cum Laude Society member; scored 32 on ACT and 2080 on SAT.

- Athletics: First-team All-Ohio in field hockey; all-league in field hockey and lacrosse; member of state champion lacrosse team in 2005.

- College: Barnard College (major: English, archaeology, anthropology).

- Home front: My parents are Nancy and Larry. I have a sister, Jean, who's 23; a brother, Grant, who's 21; and a twin brother, Scott.

- Favorite subject: English.

- How I relax: Rock out to music, watch old movies or episodes of The Twilight Zone. I explore my surroundings.
- Summer plans: Hopefully there's a healthy balance of work and play. One thing I'd like to do is get certified for scuba diving.
- Most-prized possessions: Imagination and heart.
- Favorite place to eat: Trattoria Roma -- the Pot de Crème is ridiculously good.
- Proudest sports moment: Ending Cincinnati Sycamore's 34-game winning streak in lacrosse this year.
- Favorite athlete: James J. Braddock.
- Inspiration: Honestly, everyone.
- Person I'd most like to meet: Robin Hood or C.S. Lewis.
- Place I'd like to travel: To every country on earth. But if that's not possible, I'll settle for New Zealand, Thailand and all of western Europe.
- Something most people don't know about me: I'm an avid photographer and a vintage junkie.
- Where I see myself in five years: Globe trekking, or doing mission and/or human-rights work.
- What I will miss about high school: The people, the life moments and the awkwardness.
- What I'm looking forward to in college: Independence, growth as a human being and lots of ramen noodles.
- Advice for an underclassman: Go make a life, not a living.
- Words to leave by: "I am certain of nothing but the holiness of the heart's affections, and the truth of imagination." -- John Keats
